Caffe D'arte opens at Fur Rondy Shop, will have First Friday events and more

Anchorage, AK: The nation's #1 winter festival and Alaska's #1 award-winning espresso café have joined forces in Anchorage to bring Alaskans and visitors a great new place to hang out, have coffee, attend special events, add to their Rondy pin and apparel collections and be part of the long-time Fur Rondy community.

Caffe D'arte at the Fur Rondy Shop officially opens Tuesday, January 15, and will serve not only excellent espresso, but light food and tasty treats. Owner of Caffe D'arte and Espresso Consultants U.S. Lori Brewer has been in the coffee business for over 20 years; she started the first drive-through espresso stand in the nation in 1992.

Don't miss the following events at the Fur Rondy Shop, corner of 4th Ave. and D St.!
